DECLARATION

I CERTIFY that I am eligible to vote in the elections for the Mossman Region, as I am a “grower” (or the representative authorised by a corporation, trust, partnership or other type of unincorporated body or other entity that is a “grower”) owning or leasing sugar cane farm/s in the Mossman Region (Mossman Mill Area) related to the following mill/mills and that I supply sugar cane under contract to such mill/s:

Name of grower:.....

Name of mill/mills:

Residential/Postal address:

Mobile Number (to contact you about your voting form, if need be).....

Signature of voter _____

Date _____

IMPORTANT INSTRUCTIONS

ELIGIBILITY AND VOTING

1. Voting is on a voluntary basis. To be eligible to vote for a grower representative member in the Mill Area/s listed on the voting paper, you must be a “grower” who owns or leases a sugar cane farm in that Mill Area/s and supplies sugar cane under contract to a mill in that Mill Area/s.
2. After recording your vote, please date and sign the Declaration certifying that you are a ‘grower’ in the ‘Mill Area/s’ listed in the voting paper (as defined in the QSL Constitution – see below) and are eligible to vote in this election. Failure to provide the information requested or failure to sign the declaration will render the voting paper invalid; and the voting paper will be disregarded.
3. You must complete, sign and return this voting paper so that it is received by Queensland Sugar Limited by no later than 5pm QLD time, Friday 17 July 2020 via post, email or in person to:

The Company Secretary, Queensland Sugar Limited | GPO Box 891, Brisbane QLD, 4001
Level 12, 348 Edward Street, Brisbane QLD 4000
Email: legal@qsl.com.au

Voting forms not duly completed, or unsigned, or received after this time will not be counted.

COUNTING OF VOTES

1. On receipt of your duly completed and signed voting paper, the Company Secretary will verify that the voter is eligible to vote in the Mill Area/s listed on this voting paper.
2. The Company will tally valid votes for each Mill Area in the presence of an independent scrutineer. The Company will then advise all candidates by letter of the election results. Growers in each Mill Area will be advised of the election results via offices of your local grower organisations, QSL media release and on QSL’s website www.qsl.com.au

TERM AND ROLE OF AN ELECTED HOLDER AS A GROWER REPRESENTATIVE MEMBER

Subject to the other provisions of QSL’s constitution, a Grower Representative Member who is an Elected Holder will continue to hold that office until midnight on the day that the results of the next election are declared (next elections will be held in 2023).

The rights of an Elected Holder as a Grower Representative Member of the Company are as set out in the QSL constitution or as otherwise set out as at law. Grower Representative Members have no direct role in the management of the Company or in the deliberations of the Board of Directors of the Company. As a member, your rights are principally in relation to attending and voting on matters required to be put to a vote at a members’ general meeting. There is no remuneration paid for this position, however reasonable travel expenses will be met by QSL.

DEFINITIONS FROM QSL’S CONSTITUTION

Elected Holder means a Grower who is elected or appointed as a Grower Representative to represent a Mill Area in accordance with Article 8A.

Grower Representative Members means the Members for the time being who are Grower Representatives.

Grower Representative means a person appointed from time to time by Australian Cane Farmers Association Limited and a person appointed from time to time by Queensland Cane Growers Organisation Limited, in each case as notified in writing from time to time by the appointor to the company, or an Elected Holder.

Grower means a person who supplies sugar cane under contract to a Mill either alone or with others, but does not include:

- (a) a person who is a Mill Owner; and
- (b) a corporation that is a subsidiary of another corporation (within the meaning of the Corporations Law) when the other corporation is a Mill Owner.

Mill means a building or other structure located in Queensland that is equipped for the manufacture of sugar from cane and is either in operation or not permanently closed.

Mill Area means:

- (a) in relation to a Mill which is supplied by Growers under an agreement with the Mill Owner which provides that the relevant Growers shall supply sugar cane to that particular Mill, the area comprising all sugar cane farms that supply the Mill;
- (b) in relation to a group of Mills in a single Region owned by a single Mill Owner (the Mill Group) which is supplied by Growers under an agreement with the Mill Owner which provides that the relevant Growers shall supply the Mill Owner with sugar cane and where the Mill Owner then processes the sugar cane at any one of the Mills constituting the Mill Group, the area within the Region comprising all sugar cane farms that supply the Mill Owner of the Mill Group, except where the Directors, considering the particular circumstances of a Region, determine otherwise (provided that following any such determination the total number of Elected Holders for a Region must equal the total number of Mills in the Region).

Region means each of the following

- (a) the Northern Region
- (b) the Herbert River Region
- (c) the Burdekin Region
- (d) the Central Region
- (e) the Southern Region

such regions being as generally understood by participants in the Queensland sugar industry or, in the event of any conflict or ambiguity, as determined by the Directors.

Clause 8A of the QSL Constitution:

- (a) The Growers owning or leasing sugar cane farms in each Mill Area are entitled to elect:
 - (i) in the case of a Mill Area referable to a single Mill, a single Grower from the relevant Mill Area as an Elected Holder; and
 - (ii) in the case of a Mill Area referable to a Mill Group, a number of Growers from the relevant Mill Area equal to the number of Mills in the Mill Group as Elected Holders, except where the Directors, considering the particular circumstances of a Region, determine otherwise (provided that following any such determination the total number of Elected Holders for a Region must equal the total number of Mills in the Region).

(d)(v) Each Grower will have one vote in the election of an Elected Holder for a Mill Area irrespective of whether the Grower is a natural person, a corporation, trust, partnership or other type of unincorporated body or other entity.
